Mr. Richard M. Bissell
Central Intelligence Agency
2430 E Street, N. W.
Washington 25, D. C.

Dear Mr. Bissell:

25X1A9a

The Air Research and Development Command Long Range Planning Committee on Intelligence recently submitted their findings. [REDACTED] your organization assisted the committee as an ex officio member and, as you know, I have expressed my appreciation for his services in separate correspondence.

I have attached a copy of the committee report as submitted to me. The report stresses a lack of appreciation for and support of the research and development that the Air Force might accomplish in the intelligence field. Although the committee is considered an activity of the Air Force and the Air Research and Development Command, I believe you and your organization will find their report of great interest.

Sincerely,

Lieutenant General, USAF
Commander
